

How are MicroSolv brand vials packaged to ensure no contamination - FAQ

All MicroSolv brand vials that carry a CleanPack™ label on the front side of the polypropylene box have been packed in a certified clean room, class 10,000 after having passed the Lehrer oven at approximately 600°C.

You consumer can rely on clean, uncontaminated vials for a correct analysis.