
What is a 9-425 Vial?

Screw top vials and caps that are designed to fit modern autosamplers used in HPLC and GC.

Most autosamplers today require a tight tolerance on the fit and form of the autosampler vials and caps. Our engineers have developed a vial and cap system that not only fits most autosamplers, they have instituted an automated system to check every single vial for a tight QC assuring you of jam free runs.

Click HERE for Autosampler Vial Ordering Information.