
Can I use other UV wavelengths with the HPLC post column, photochemical reactor?

Yes, you can purchase from MicroSolv, a replacement UV lamp for the post column photochemical reactor that emits mostly a 366nm wavelength. This lamp is completely compatible with all knitted reactor coils sold by MicroSolv.

Click here for ordering information for the post column reactor