

---

What is the principle of polyimide removal using the MicroSolv CE Window Maker?

The principle mechanism of removal of the polyimide coating is heat. By burning the polyimide at a predetermined temperature range, it can be easily removed by hand wiping the burn area with a gentle solvent such as water or acetone using a clean, non fibrous cloth or paper.

Window Maker Ordering Information